PROFILE

As a skilled Frontend Developer, I excel in crafting captivating web applications with expertise in HTML5, CSS3, and JavaScript (including ES6+). Proficient in React, I ensure seamless user experiences and responsive design. Collaborating effectively in Agile teams, I implement UI/UX best practices, optimizing performance and cross-browser compatibility. With a mobile-first approach and a strong grasp of RESTful APIs, I deliver cutting-edge solutions. A dedicated problem solver, I thrive in creating SPAs and utilize version control (Git) for efficient development. Let's team up to bring exceptional digital experiences to life!
